

COMPUTER PROGRAMMER.

Develop, design, test and document Edgenet's m2o and iCat software systems, applying knowledge of Edgenet web-based quoting systems. Use knowledge of Edgenet programming to automate selection, configuration, and pricing of products for Silver Line and Home Depot products. Review, analyze and modify programming systems, resolve technical and functional issues, consult with project manager for operational and performance requirements and request of overall m2o system. Diagnose and troubleshoot complex application problems, and leverage resources to develop solutions. Produce m2o software releases for testing procedures. Replace, delete or modify codes to correct errors. Analyze and document program logic, coding, and corrections. Provide technical support in complex areas such as systems configuration, setup and functionality for m2o and iCat applications. Export and import data to / from various formats including delimited raw/text files, MS-Excel, XML, SQL Server, MS-Access. Ability to transfer data between various databases. Write and debug complex T-SQL queries and scripts. Troubleshoot various database issues and T-SQL queries.

BA or BS in Computer Programming / Systems and 5 yrs experience required. This is a full-time position. Must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States.

TO APPLY CONTACT: Silver Line Building Products, LLC
One Silver Line Drive
North Brunswick, NJ 08902
Attn.: Kenneth Greenberg, Director